Craic agus Comhrá

WHAT

Craic agus comhrá literally means ‘fun and conversation.’ It is the Irish equivalent of the French cinq à sept, an after-work get-together.

WHEN

On the last Thursday of each month – bon temps, mauvais temps – from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Our timing coincides with the pub’s “Happy Hour.”

WHERE

The Irish Embassy Pub & Grill, 1234 Bishop Street
(Just south of St. Catherine Street on the west side.)

The pub kindly provides finger food.

We will be in the bar at the rear of the pub.

WHY

For networking, social conversation and casual drinks. We will be joined by other European Chambers of Commerce.

We encourage you to join us for a great chance to meet up and network informally with other members of the Chamber, other European Chambers of Commerce and anyone who may be interested in the ICC and its activities. These monthly gatherings are open to everyone and provide an opportunity to visit socially in a relaxed atmosphere. We look forward to meeting you there.
